

Join us for a Panel Discussion:

Can a Participatory Peace Process Bring Lasting Security to Afghanistan?

Monday, June 13, 2011

9:00 AM – 10:30 AM

National Press Club
529 14th St., NW
Holeman Lounge

Seating is limited.

Reserve space by contacting
Jaime Horn at 202.403.2014 or jaime_horn@huntalternatives.org.

Counterinsurgency experts Dr. David Kilcullen and Andrew Exum, along with Afghan civil society leaders, will discuss how to employ strategies that will engage more Afghans in ongoing reintegration and reconciliation efforts. New York Times Magazine contributing writer Elizabeth Rubin will moderate the event.

Panelists:

Dr. David Kilcullen

*Founding President and CEO of Caerus Associates
Senior Non-Resident Fellow, Center for a New American Security*

Andrew Exum

Fellow, Center for a New American Security

Rangina Hamidi

*Kandahar Treasure
A finalist for the 2007 CNN Hero Award; member of the Women Waging Peace Network of The Institute for Inclusive Security*

Wazhma Frogh Mohammad Yonus

*Afghan Women's Network
A 2009 recipient of the US Department of State's International Women of Courage award; member of the Women Waging Peace Network of The Institute for Inclusive Security*

About The Institute for Inclusive Security

The Institute for Inclusive Security uses advocacy, training, and research to promote the inclusion of all stakeholders, particularly women, in the peace process.

www.InclusiveSecurity.org

Elizabeth Rubin

Dr. David Kilcullen

Andrew Exum

Rangina Hamidi

Wazhma Frogh