Martinez named to Boston Foundation board

Boston Business Journal - 11:59 AM EST Tuesday

Claudio Martinez, known as an effective community organizer and experienced civic leader in Boston, was elected to the Boston Foundation board of directors.

Martinez, executive director of the Hyde Square Task Force, is a former director of Community Organizing at the Jamaica Plain Community Development Corporation.

Martinez serves as a member of the advisory board of the Boston Housing Authority and is a board member of the Boston Children's Hospital community advisory board.

He was named a Barr Fellow in 2005, a designation bestowed by the Boston-based Barr Foundation Inc. that recognizes the most gifted and experienced leaders in the Boston area.

Martinez has managerial experience in the private and nonprofit sectors.

The Boston Foundation is one of the oldest and largest community foundations in the nation, with assets of over $770 million.
