The sweet sounds of gospel

Tue Jan 22, 2008, 11:25 AM EST

CAMBRIDGE - Sanders Theatre was filled with the sounds of the Harlem Gospel Choir, the Cambridge Rindge and Latin vocal ensemble and dance courtesy of OrigiNation this past Saturday.

The concert celebrated the legacy of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

State Rep. Byron Rushing was the master of ceremonies.

The Harlem Gospel Choir, founded in 1986 by Allen Bailey, who conceived the idea while attending a celebration in honor of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at the Cotton Club in Harlem, is one of the preeminent gospel choirs in the world.

The Cambridge Rindge and Latin School Vocal Ensemble, under the direction of Gene Kelly, was joined this year by the youth dance group, OrigiNation Inc. Founded in 1994 by Shaumba Yandgi Dibinga, OrigiNation specializes in implementing innovative and dynamic programs that motivate, challenge, and inspire youth to be the best they can be, and offers quality dance, theater arts and African history education.
